Fees and Charges Explained

KNC Charges (Care Management Fee)

KNC is an impartial provider of information, advice, guidance and service connect. We work with you and assist your decision-making to ensure what you receive is in your best interests. Our charges are deducted from your Package Subsidy, so no direct payment is required by the Home Care Package recipient.

Brokered service Charges

- Carers
- Domestic Cleaning
- Clinical Nursing Care
- Allied Health
- Home Maintenance
- Case Management
- Equipment

The costs of these direct services are in addition to KNC care management fee. They are also deducted from the Home Care Package you are provided by the Government. These brokered service charges vary depending on the type of service chosen, when and how often the service is used. These services are detailed in the Care Plan & Budget. KNC's role is to help you manage your Care Plan and Budget.

*Approximate yearly Government subsidy

* KNC receives no commission on Brokered Service

KNC Home Care uses brokered services, and the service cost can vary. No admin costs from KNC are included in service fee charges.

Allied Health fees are determined by the service needs and client preference.

Clients work with their Care Manager to determine their goals, choose their preferred service provider, and approve the costs of service to be delivered to assist achieving positive outcomes.
